

Reli tours and travel requires complete documents for Japan visa application to be received 20 working days (excluding holidays and weekends) prior to the intended departure to Japan. Being that as it may, I choose to submit the documents and acknowledge that it may not be processed on time. I understand that LBC service has its inherent delivery times. It was explained to me that Reli tours and Travel company does not guarantee the issuance of a Japanese Visa. I understand that the Japanese embassy may require additional documents and this may cause further delays.

Tumatanggap ng Japan Visa application ang Reli Tours 20 working days(di Kasama ang Holidays, Sabado, Linggo) bago sa naturang lipad papunta sa bansang Japan. Gayunpaman, pinili kong ipa process ang aking application at alam kong maaring hindi lumabas ang resulta ng aking application sa natakdang araw ng aking alis. Naiintindihan ko din na ang LBC service ay may naturang Delery times . Napaliwang sa akin ng Reli Tours and travel Company na hindi sila nangangako na mabibigyan ako ng Japanese Visa. Naiintindihan ko din na maaring humingi ng karagdagang documento ang Japanese Embassy at magkakaroon ng dagdag na pagkakaantala
